Broadway Buddies presents:
Time Together

Imagine, Create, Express

Home Screen

Dear Broadway Buddies families,

Welcome to Time Together: Imagine, Create, Express!

In these new digital programs, campers will discover the power of imagination, creative expression, and communication online as they explore the world of the performing arts together.

From daily classes in theater, music, and dance to crafts, talent shows and special guests, your student will experience all of the fun and friendship of a summer at Broadway Buddies Camp.

We hope that you will join us on this unprecedented journey to create, connect and bring truth to the words of William Shakespeare: “All the world’s a stage!”

Time Together

Wendy Scott-Koeth (STAGECRAFTERS COORDINATOR/FOUNDER OF BROADWAY BUDDIES) is excited to be a part of yet another summer at Stagecrafters Theatre. She continues to be in awe of the talent that takes the stage by storm year after year. Wendy has been the program Coordinator & Artistic Director for Stagecrafters Theatre for over 30 years. She has also produced and directed over 150 productions. Wendy enjoys her work and takes pride working with young people, fostering self confidence through the discipline of theatre. Wendy has performed professionally since she was a child. She has worked on stage, film, commercials, radio and print. She has appeared at local theatres including: Chagrin Valley Little Theatre, Cassidy Theatre, The Halle, Mercury Summer Stock, Cain Park and The Playhouse. Wendy and husband, Jamie (actor/teacher) are proud residents of Orange Village and their son, Liam is entering his Sophomore year at Orange High School. They are so happy that he too has been performing professionally since 4 months old and found his home and forever friends in the Stagecrafters Family!

Tali Singer (STAGECRAFTERS SUPERVISOR) is thrilled to be working at Stagecrafters! Tali grew up performing throughout the Cleveland area, but always called Stagecrafters home. She recently moved back to Cleveland after living in NYC for 5 years working for The Weinstein Company and for Paradigm Talent Agency in the Youth Department. Tali would like to thank her family & Scott for their endless love and support!

Shannon Sapp (Broadway Buddies Program Coordinator) is thrilled to be part of Broadway Buddies. As a former participant of Stagecrafters and a musical theater lover, Shannon is honored to be able to give back to the students she is so passionate about, while watching them become stage stars! Shannon has worked in special education at Solon City Schools for thirteen years. She is currently employed with Orange School District where she focuses on helping each child reach his/her potential while accomplishing IEP goals along with promoting independence and behavior management. She would like to thank all of the stars, buddies and parents...we couldn't have done it without you all!!

Zach Burton – is excited to be working with Stagecrafters! He has worked in theaters throughout the greater Cleveland area. Zach began his career at Willoughby Fine Arts Association. Zach was cast in Scrooge the Musical at Fine Arts. He moved on to college at Kent State. He found himself working on backstage crews in several different shows. To pursue his passion in stage management he found himself at Cleveland's Mercury Summer Stock. Mercury Summer Stock gave him the opportunity to run several different shows, such as, Thoroughly Modern Millie, Shrek the Musical, Ragtime, Wedding Singer and many more. Mercury also offered him the opportunity to direct Legally Blonde! He is settling in with Stagecrafter's and could not be more excited. Zach has music directed Hairspray, stage managed Godspell and Aladdin, is currently the adult Glee Club's music director, and is now the director of Broadway Buddies. Zach would like to thank Stagecrafter's for all the current and future opportunities.

Time Together

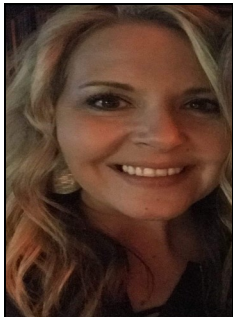

Claire Connelly – is a highly sought after performer who has been repeatedly praised in the Cleveland Plain Dealer for having “dulcet tones,” singing with “bright assurance,” and being “a fine soprano with a vivacious presence.” Regionally, she has performed with Cleveland Opera Theater, Apollo’s Fire, the Cleveland Orchestra, and the Akron Symphony. In Oklahoma, she performed with Tulsa Opera, Light Opera Oklahoma, and Cimarron Opera. In 2010 she made her first appearance at Severance Hall with famed composer-conductor Marvin Hamlisch. A professor of voice at John Carroll University, she enjoys sharing her love of music and voice with students of all ages. Originally from Oklahoma, Claire completed her Bachelor of Music from the University of Oklahoma and her Masters of Music in vocal performance from the Cleveland

Institute of Music.

Stefanie Gaudino – has been with the Broadway Buddies program for nearly 4 seasons and she is ecstatic to be returning for another summer camp session! She has been a moderate/intensive needs intervention specialist for 2 years and will be teaching at North Ridgeville High School, for her third year, this coming fall. She received her Bachelor's in Special Education from Cleveland State. She is currently pursuing her Master's there as well. She wanted to give a special shout out to the phenomenal staff and, of course, the talented stars!

Danielle Jocke – has been a paraprofessional at Solon High School for the past 10 years and a part of Broadway Buddies for the last 4 years. Her favorite Broadway Buddies performances so far have been Grease and Queen. She loves getting to know each and every "star" and helping them "shine" doing what they love as well as being a part of the Dream Team experience each summer. In her free time she enjoys spending time with her children, playing volleyball, working in her yard, and going to concerts with friends.

Will Sanborn – has been a part of the Stagecrafters family since 1998! After adventures as a professional actor in North Carolina and New York City, he returned home to Northeast Ohio to perform, teach and direct. He’s appeared on stages throughout the region, including Beck Center for the Arts, Cain Park, Lakeland Civic Theater and Mercury Theatre Company. As a teaching artist with Stagecrafters, Orange High School, Great Lakes Theater and The Musical Theater Project, he has worked with thousands of students in grades K-12 across Ohio! He holds a BFA in Theatre Arts (Acting) from Elon University, and a Teaching Certification in the Michael Chekhov Technique from the Great Lakes Michael Chekhov Consortium. He strives to pass on the Crafter legacy everyday as he helps young people find their voice and build community through the performing arts. Offstage, you can find him running on trails, spending time with friends and cheering on his favorite Cleveland sports teams!

Darian Wilson – is OVERJOYED to be a part of the Stagecrafters’ family! An Indiana native and graduate of Indiana University, her credits include Harlem Woman/Dance Captain, (Ragtime, Cain Park), Three Blind Mice/Grumpy, (Shrek the Musical, Beck Center), Ensemble/Dance Captain, (Memphis, Cain Park), Lil Inez (Hairspray, Cardinal Stage Company), and Peter Pan (Peter Pan, Summer Stock Stage). When Darian’s not performing, you can find her teaching throughout Northeast Ohio or spending time with her family and friends.
