The Conference will take place on Wednesday, June 19 and Thursday, June 20 from 7:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. at the Cleveland I-X Center, 1 I-X Center Drive, Cleveland, OH 44135. Rates for the conference vary based on attendee registration – Professionals are $225 (2 days) and $175 (1 day), Students (25 and under) are $100, Family Members are $100 and Individuals with Autism are $60.

Limited scholarships are available based on financial need. Registration and scholarship application deadline is June 11. Walk-ins are accepted at the conference for an additional $25 fee per person. Visit www.milestones.org for full conference information and registration.

The Annual Conference was established for parents and professionals to gain insight on best practices in education, behavior and communication strategies through evidenced-based workshops and education. Some highlights of the conference include: national keynotes, Jed Baker, PhD and Stephen Shore, EdD presenting cutting-edge research, practical strategies for every day for all ages, stages and abilities, 70+ workshops for new diagnosis through adulthood, professional development credits in multiple disciplines, NEW exhibitor benefits and more!

Presented with the generous support of multiple donors including the Organization for Autism Research (OAR), Forest City Enterprises and University Hospitals, Rainbow Babies & Children's Hospital.

Milestones Autism Organization was founded in 2003 by parents to promote life-long strategies of success for individuals with autism, from childhood through adulthood. To improve the level of educational and therapeutic programming available to individuals with autism, Milestones focuses on training professionals, paraprofessionals and parents in research-based successful educational interventions.

The mission of Milestones Organization is to provide Access, Education, Training and Collaboration for the autism community. To learn more, you can visit Milestones Autism Organization anytime at www.milestones.org.
